May 1, 1935, Sergeant Wilbur B. "Webb" Miller

Sergeant Wilbur B. "Webb" Miller, 37, died from a gunshot wound suffered in a gunbattle with armed robbers. Miller, on motorcycle, chased the robbers from Council Bluffs into Omaha, Nebraska, until their getaway car crashed into a parked truck at 310 North 10th Street. Miller fatally wounded one of the robbers in the gunbattle. Thousands crowded into the funeral service for Miller at Cutler Chapel, spilling out into Bayliss Park. Thousands more lined the funeral procession route to Memorial Park Cemetery. Miller left a widow and five children.
